A review, en vrac : It is a beautiful, beautiful book. She shows you instead of telling you, and because of that, she avoids the manufactured angst I've felt when other books delve into this world. Without the Sabbath, no holy nation, no kingdom of priests. No matter the pretext for combat, it seemed to have been a rite of passage for a boy to become a man. BeforeIleftthehouse,everyonehadgotablissing.Their biographies demonstrate how much operational brilliance depends on the Smiths and Krulaks who can turn big ideas into workable plans. He called into conference his friend, Lord

Reading, the Lord Chief Justice of England, who had an intimate knowledge of finance, and who for some months gave his whole time to the many problems that arose.
